

Gill Facts

History:

- Developed in Germany
- Aquired by Gill in 1954
- Incorporated in 1990
- Start to finish concrete repair products in 1997
- Cortec Migrating Corrosion Inhibitor® in 2000
- Horizontal / Vertical Bag Mix in 2001
- All Purpose Bag Mix in 2002

Features and Benefits:

- Accepts most vehicular traffic in four hours
- Can be coated in 24 hours
- Patching overlays and full depth pours
- Non-shrink grout
- Protects against corrosion
- Bonds permanently to existing concrete
- Develops high early strength
- Cost effective

Physical Advantages:

- Indefinite shelf life
- Not sensitive to storage temperature
- Non-hazardous / environmentally safe

You will find successful Gill concrete products in companies like:

- Eastman Kodak
- Proctor & Gamble
- Monsanto Chemical
- American Cyanamid
- Atlantic Woods
- Savannah Pulp
- Amoco Chemical Co.
- FMC Corporation
- Ashland Chemical
- Union Carbide
- Abbott Laboratories
- James River Corporation
- Sinclair Refinery
- Eli Lilly Corporation
- Miller Brewery
- Coca-Cola
- LTV Steel
- General Mills
- Georgia Pacific
- Lucent Technologies
- Moen
- Kimberly Clark
- Rubicon
- Englehard ...just to name a few!

Gill Industries, Inc. is a proud member of the following :

- The Society for Protective Coatings
- International Concrete Repair Institute
- American Concrete Institute
- Portland Cement Association